Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of The American Schools of Oriental Research (a nonprofit organization), which comprise the statements of financial position as of June 30, 2016 and 2015, and the related statements of activities and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards issued by the Comptroller General of the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of The American Schools of Oriental Research as of June 30, 2016 and 2015, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Other Matters

Supplementary Information

Our audits were conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the financial statements as a whole. The accompanying schedule of expenditures of federal awards for the year ended June 30, 2016, as required by Title 2 U.S. Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) Part 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards, and the statements of support and revenue and functional expenses for the years ended June 30, 2016 and 2015, are presented for purposes of additional analysis and are not a required part of the financial statements. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. In our opinion, the information is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

Other Reporting Required by Government Auditing Standards

In accordance with Government Auditing Standards, we have also issued our report, dated November 8, 2016, on our consideration of The American Schools of Oriental Research's internal control over financial reporting and on our tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grant agreements and other matters. The purpose of that report is to describe the scope of our testing of internal control over financial reporting and compliance and the results of that testing, and not to provide an opinion on internal control over financial reporting or on compliance. That report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards in considering The American Schools of Oriental Research's internal control over financial reporting and compliance.

Notes to Financial Statements

The American Schools of Oriental Research

Years Ended June 30, 2016 and 2015

NOTE A -- THE ORGANIZATION AND SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The Organization: The American Schools of Oriental Research (ASOR), established in 1900, was incorporated as a not-for-profit public charity in 1935. ASOR is an international organization whose mission is to initiate, encourage, and support research into, and public understanding of, the history and cultures of the Near East and wider Mediterranean, from the earliest times. The principal sources of revenue are from scholarly journals and books, annual programs, membership dues, grants and contributions.

Basis of Accounting: ASOR prepares its financial statements in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP). This basis of accounting involves the application of accrual accounting; consequently, revenues and gains are recognized when earned, and expenses and losses are recognized when incurred.

Basis of Presentation: ASOR follows FASB ASC 958-205, 210, 225, issued by the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) for presentation of its financial statements. ASOR reports information regarding its financial position and activities according to the following three net asset classes:

Unrestricted Net Assets: Unrestricted net assets represent those assets either not subject to donor-imposed restrictions or releases from temporarily restricted net assets designated for stipulated activities or programs, which are expended within the current fiscal year. Board-designated or appropriated amounts are legally unrestricted and are reported as part of the unrestricted class.

Temporarily Restricted Net Assets: Temporarily restricted net assets are subject to explicit or implicit donor-imposed restrictions that may or will be met by actions of ASOR and/or the passage of time. When a restriction expires (that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or a purpose restriction is accomplished), restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets and reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from restrictions.

Permanently Restricted Net Assets: Permanently restricted net assets are subject to donor-imposed stipulations that they be maintained permanently by ASOR. Generally, the donors of these assets permit ASOR to use all or part of the income earned on related investments for general or restricted purposes.

Revenue Recognition/Deferred Revenue: Revenue is derived primarily from memberships, subscriptions, and publication sales. Revenues from memberships and subscriptions are recognized ratably over the related period (normally one year). Any unearned amount is presented as deferred revenue in the statement of financial position. Publication sales are recognized at the time of sale.

Recognition of Support: Contributions and grant awards are recorded as unrestricted, temporarily restricted, or permanently restricted support depending on the existence and/or nature of any donor restrictions. Contributions, including unconditional promises to give, are recognized by ASOR in the period received. All contributions are available for unrestricted use unless specifically restricted by the donor. Unconditional promises to give, due in the next year, are recorded at their net realizable value. Unconditional promises to give due in subsequent years are reported at the present value of their net realizable value, using an appropriate discount rate. Conditional promises to give are recognized when the conditions on which they depend are substantially met.

For the years ended June 30, 2016 and 2015, ASOR recognized support of $900,000 and $756,000, respectively, and expenditures of $773,453 and $652,545, respectively, under a cooperative agreement with the Department of State. The project is ongoing and involves planning for the safeguarding of heritage sites in Syria and Iraq.

Cash Equivalents: ASOR considers all highly liquid investments with an initial maturity of three months or less, to be cash equivalents. ASOR held no cash equivalents at June 30, 2016 and 2015.

The American Schools of Oriental Research

NOTE A -- THE ORGANIZATION AND SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES -- Continued

Investments: Investments are held by two brokerage firms in various mutual/investment funds and other equities and fixed-income securities. Investments are reported at fair value based on quoted market prices. Purchases and sales of securities are recorded on a trade-date basis. Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis. Dividends are recorded on the ex-dividend date. Realized and unrealized gains and losses are included in the changes in net assets. Investment income and gains restricted by a donor are reported as increases in temporarily or permanently restricted net assets and released to unrestricted net assets upon satisfaction of purpose or time restrictions or the appropriation of general-use earnings. Refer also to Note B -- Investments.

Accounts Receivable: Accounts receivable are stated at the amount management expects to collect from outstanding balances. Management provides for probable uncollectible amounts through a charge to earnings and a credit to a valuation allowance based on its assessment of the current status of individual accounts. Balances that are still outstanding after management has made reasonable collection efforts are written off through a charge to the valuation allowance and a credit to accounts receivable. Management considers all receivables to be collectible; therefore, no allowance for doubtful accounts is provided at June 30, 2016 and 2015. Accounts receivable balances are due within a year and are unsecured.

Inventory and Capitalized Costs: Inventory consists of completed publications that are sold through an independent distributor. Capitalized costs consist of expenses related to the production of publications prior to completion. Inventories are stated at the lower of cost, determined by total production costs capitalized, or market value.

Property and Equipment: Property and equipment are carried at cost or, if donated, at fair value at the date of donation, less accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is calculated on a straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the respective assets. Purchases are determined to be capital expenditures based on ASOR's policy of capitalizing assets acquired at a cost (or, if donated, a fair value) exceeding $500. Those items that are not a capital expenditure are immediately expensed.

Donated Services: Donated services are recognized as contributions in accordance with FASB ASC 958-605, if the services (a) create or enhance nonfinancial assets or (b) require specialized skills, are performed by people with those skills, and would otherwise be purchased by ASOR. Volunteers provided services that are not recognized as contributions in the accompanying financial statements since the recognition criteria under FASB ASC 958-605 were not met.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments: The carrying value of accounts receivable and accrued expenses is considered by management to approximate the fair value of such at June 30, 2016 and 2015, based on the short-term maturity of these financial instruments. Investments are carried at fair value based on quoted market prices. Refer also to Note H -- Fair Value Measurements.

Income Taxes: ASOR is exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. ASOR had no unrelated business activities and, therefore, incurred no unrelated business income taxes for the years ended June 30, 2016 and 2015. Tax filings for fiscal years subsequent to fiscal 2011-2012 remain open and subject to examination.

Functional Allocation of Expenses: The costs of providing the various programs and activities have been summarized on a functional basis in the statements of activities. Expenses that can be identified with a specific program and support service are allocated directly thereto. Certain indirect expenses are allocated to programs based on estimated usage and/or benefit.

The American Schools of Oriental Research

NOTE A -- THE ORGANIZATION AND SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES -- Continued

Use of Estimates: The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of support, revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Reclassifications: Certain amounts previously reported in the 2015 financial statements have been reclassified to conform to the 2016 presentation.

NOTE B -- INVESTMENTS

NOTE E -- PERMANENTLY RESTRICTED NET ASSETS

Permanently restricted net assets are comprised of endowment funds that are restricted by donors to investment in perpetuity. Endowment funds are invested in various mutual funds, with the net earnings thereon available for ASOR's general use or as otherwise specified by the donor. Permanently restricted net assets are as follows:

	June 30,
	2016	2015
General Endowment Fund	$ 504,270	$ 428,585

Joe Seger Excavation Fund *	44,694	0
	$ 985,577	$ 838,859

^{*}Temporarily restricted net assets of $44,694 were reclassified to permanently restricted net assets at June 30, 2016, in keeping with the donors' intent for the fund.

Refer also to Note F -- Endowment Net Assets.

NOTE F -- ENDOWMENT NET ASSETS

In June 2009, the Commonwealth of Massachusetts enacted a version of UPMIFA (Uniform Prudent Management Institutional Funds Act) applicable to endowment funds existing on or established after the Act's effective date. UPMIFA eliminates the historic dollar concept of UMIFA (the governing law in Massachusetts prior to June 2009) in favor of the "prudent spending" concept as pertains to endowment net assets. ASOR maintains that the historic dollar value of contributions to its endowment funds approximates the permanently restricted portion of such when applying the "prudent spending" concept.

As a result of this interpretation, the Organization classifies as permanently restricted net assets (1) the original value of gifts donated to endowments, (2) the original value of subsequent gifts to endowments, and (3) accumulations to endowments made in accordance with the direction of the applicable donor gift instruments. The remaining portions of donor-restricted endowment funds that are not classified as permanently restricted net assets are classified as temporarily restricted net assets until those amounts are appropriated for expenditure by the Organization in a manner consistent with the standard of prudence prescribed by UPMIFA.

ASOR has adopted investment and spending policies for endowment assets that attempt to provide a predictable stream of funding to programs supported by its endowments while seeking to maintain the purchasing power of those endowment assets over the long-term. ASOR's investment portfolio relies on diversification of assets to achieve its long-term return objectives within prudent risk parameters. Earnings on endowment funds are available for ASOR's general use or as otherwise restricted by the donor.

The composition of endowment net assets by fund type is as follows at June 30, 2016:

	Unrestricted		emporarily Restricted	rmanently estricted	Total
Donor-restricted endowment funds	$	0	$ 426,986	$ 985,577	$	1,412,563

NOTE G -- FACILITIES LEASE

On July 1, 1996, ASOR entered into an agreement to lease office space from the Trustees of Boston University. No rent is payable under this lease. ASOR is required to make monthly payments to cover operating costs incurred by the landlord. The lease expired on June 30, 2012, and has not been formally extended. ASOR has received no notice of Boston University's intent to terminate its tenancy arrangement with ASOR. However, ASOR learned unofficially in late-October 2016, that the building it currently occupies was sold recently. Tenants of the building have been led to believe that they will be able to remain under the current terms of donated space until at least March 2018. Management expects to be given at least twelve months notice, as was agreed upon in the aforementioned lease. It is possible that ASOR may move to other space at Boston University, but it is not certain if the new space would be donated in-kind. The value of the use of the leased property has been recorded as an in-kind contribution and an in-kind expense of $33,660 for the years ended June 30, 2016 and 2015.

NOTE H -- FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

ASOR applies GAAP for fair value measurements of financial assets that are recognized or disclosed at fair value in the financial statements on a recurring basis. GAAP defines fair value as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. GAAP also establishes a framework for measuring fair value and expands disclosures about fair value measurements.

FASB ASC 820-10 establishes a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. This hierarchy consists of three broad levels: Level 1 inputs consist of unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets and have the highest priority, Level 2 inputs consist of observable inputs other than quoted prices for identical assets, and Level 3 inputs have the lowest priority.

The following represents assets measured at fair value on a recurring basis by ASOR at June 30, 2016 and 2015:

		Quoted Prices in Active Markets for Identical Assets	Significant Other Observable Inputs	Significant Unobservable Inputs
	Fair Value	(Level 1)	(Level 2)	(Level 3)
June 30, 2016 Investments, excluding cash held by brokers	$ 1,373,756	$ 1,373,756	$ 0	$0
Total	$ 1,373,756	$ 1,373,756	$0	$0
June 30, 2015 Investments, excluding cash held by brokers	$ 1,442,330	$ 1,442,330	$ 0	$0
Total	$ 1,442,330	$ 1,442,330	$ 0	$

Level 1: Investments are held in various mutual/investment funds, equities and fixed-income securities that are reported at fair value based on quoted market prices. Refer also to Note B -- Investments.

At June 30, 2016 and 2015, ASOR had no assets or liabilities classified within Level 2 or Level 3 of the fair value hierarchy.

The American Schools of Oriental Research

NOTE I -- SIGNIFICANT CONCENTRATIONS

Financial instruments that subject ASOR to the potential concentration of credit risk consist primarily of temporary cash deposits in a bank located in Massachusetts. ASOR's bank deposits are eligible for FDIC coverage of up to $250,000 per account holder per bank. ASOR's bank deposits exceeded federally insured limits at June 30, 2016 by approximately $692,000. ASOR has incurred no loss as a result of such.

Cash and investments of approximately $ 1,432,000 and $1,107,000 at June 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively, are invested with one brokerage firm. These, as well as other investments, are primarily unsecured, though certain coverage may be provided by the Security Investors Protection Corporation for missing stocks and other securities up to $500,000, including up to $100,000 in cash if a brokerage or bank brokerage subsidiary fails. SIPC does not insure the quality of investments or protect against losses from fluctuating market values.

NOTE J -- COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

Grants, bequests and endowments require the fulfillment of certain conditions set forth in the instruments of the gifts. Failure to fulfill the conditions, or in the case of the endowments, failure to continue to fulfill them, could result in the return of funds to the grantor. The Board and management believe the contingency is remote, since by accepting the gifts and their terms, it has accommodated the objectives of ASOR to the provisions of the gifts.

NOTE K -- RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The financial statements include only ASOR's accounts. These financial statements do not include ASOR's affiliates: the William Foxwell Albright Institute of Archeological Research (AIAR) in Jerusalem; the American Center of Oriental Research in Amman, Incorporated (ACOR) in Amman, Jordan; and the Cyprus American Archaeological Research Institute, Inc. (CAARI) in Nicosia, Cyprus.

ASOR shares office space with the aforementioned named affiliates and pays for common expenses, which are later reimbursed by the affiliates.

Members of the ASOR Board of Trustees contributed approximately $133,000 and $119,000 to ASOR for the years ended June 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively.

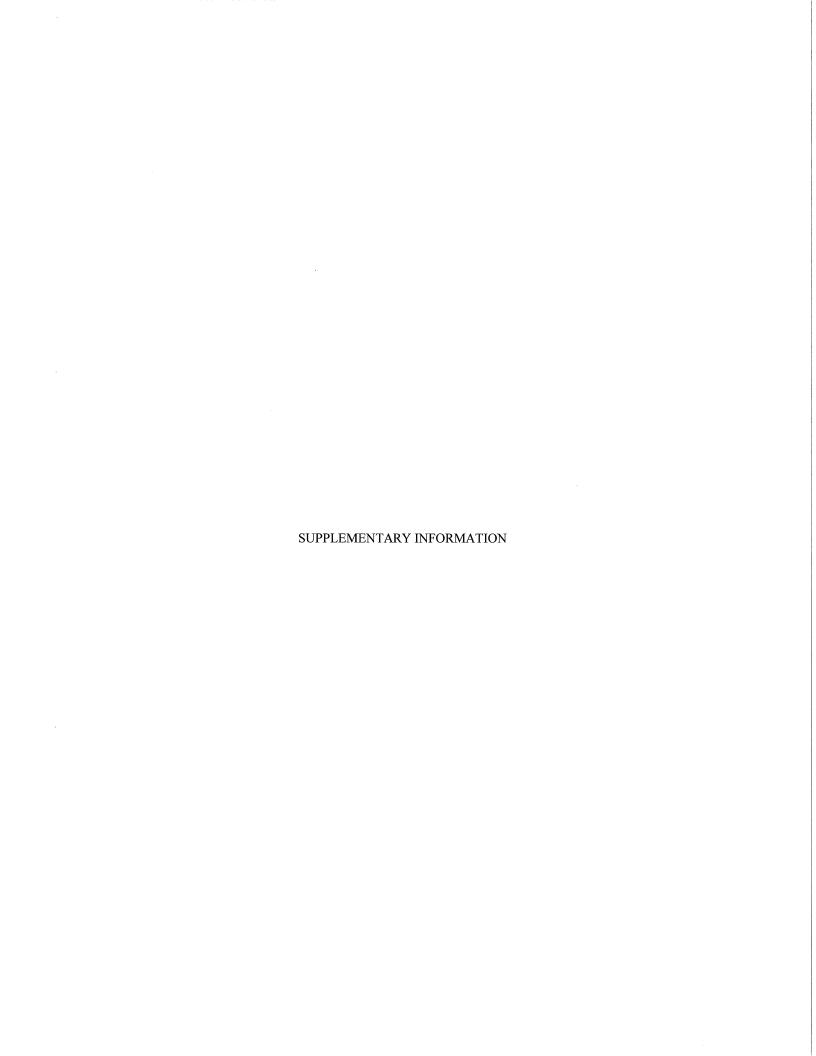

In-kind contributions for the years ended June 30, 2016 and 2015, include $33,660 of donated office space. (Refer also to Note G -- Facilities Lease.) In-kind contributions for the year ended June 30, 2016 also includes $171,300 of donated legal services.

The American Schools of Oriental Research

NOTE L -- SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

ASOR subsequently received provisional approval for a cost amendment to its cooperative agreement with the U.S. Department of State to support the continuation of the Planning for Safeguarding Heritage Sites in Syria and Northern Iraq. The cost amendment is expected to provide additional funding of $200,000 for the project and to extend the grant period through December 31, 2016.

Management has evaluated subsequent events through November 8, 2016, the date on which financial statements were available for issue.

Notes to Schedule of Expenditures of Federal Awards

The American Schools of Oriental Research

Year Ended June 30, 2016

NOTE A -- BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The accompanying schedule of expenditures of federal awards (the Schedule) includes the federal grant activity of The American Schools of Oriental Research (ASOR) for the year ended June 30, 2016. The information in the Schedule is presented in accordance with the requirements of Title 2 U.S. Code of Federal Regulations Part 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards (Uniform Guidance). Because the Schedule represents only a selected portion of ASOR's operations, it is not intended to, and does not, present the financial position, changes in net assets, or cash flows of ASOR.

NOTE B -- SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Expenditures reported on the Schedule are reported on the accrual basis of accounting. Such expenditures are recognized following, as applicable, either the cost principles contained in Office of Management and Budget Circular A-122, Cost Principles for Non-Profit Organizations, or the cost principles contained in Title 2 U.S. Code of Federal Regulations Part 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards, wherein certain types of expenditures are not allowable or are limited as to reimbursement.

NOTE C -- INDIRECT COST RATE

ASOR has elected not to use the 10% de minimis indirect cost rate allowed under the Uniform Guidance.

Independent Auditors' Report on Internal Control Over Financial Reporting and on Compliance and Other Matters Based on an Audit of Financial Statements Performed in Accordance with Government Auditing Standards

Board of Trustees The American Schools of Oriental ResearchBoston, Massachusetts

We have audited, in accordance with the auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards issued by the Comptroller General of the United States, the financial statements of The American Schools of Oriental Research (a nonprofit organization), which comprise the statement of financial position as of June 30, 2016, and the related statements of activities, and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements, and have issued our report thereon dated November 8, 2016.

Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements, we considered The American Schools of Oriental Research's internal control over financial reporting (internal control) to determine the audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of The American Schools of Oriental Research's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of The American Schools of Oriental Research's internal control.

A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct, misstatements on a timely basis. A material weakness is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the entity's financial statements will not be prevented, or detected and corrected on a timely basis. A significant deficiency is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the first paragraph of this section and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies. Given these limitations, during our audit we did not identify any deficiencies in internal control that we consider to be material weaknesses. However, material weaknesses may exist that have not been identified.

Compliance and Other Matters

As part of obtaining reasonable assurance about whether The American Schools of Oriental Research's financial statements are free from material misstatement, we performed tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grant agreements, noncompliance with which could have a direct and material effect on the determination of financial statement amounts. However, providing an opinion on compliance with those provisions was not an objective of our audit, and accordingly, we do not express such an opinion. The results of our tests disclosed no instances of noncompliance or other matters that are required to be reported under Government Auditing Standards.

Board of Trustees The American Schools of Oriental Research Page Two

Purpose of this Report

The purpose of this report is solely to describe the scope of our testing of internal control and compliance and the results of that testing, and not to provide an opinion on the effectiveness of the organization's internal control or on compliance. This report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards in considering the organization's internal control and compliance. Accordingly, this communication is not suitable for any other purpose.

Independent Auditors' Report on Compliance for Each Major Program and on Internal Control Over Compliance Required by the Uniform Guidance

Board of Trustees

The American Schools of Oriental Research
Boston, Massachusetts

Report on Compliance for Each Major Federal Program

We have audited The American Schools of Oriental Research's compliance with the types of compliance requirements described in the OMB Compliance Supplement that could have a direct and material effect on each of The American Schools of Oriental Research's major federal programs for the year ended June 30, 2016. The American Schools of Oriental Research's major federal programs are identified in the summary of auditors' results section of the accompanying schedule of findings and questioned costs.

Management's Responsibility

Management is responsible for compliance with federal statutes, regulations, and the terms and conditions of its federal awards applicable to its federal programs.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on compliance for each of The American Schools of Oriental Research's major federal programs based on our audit of the types of compliance requirements referred to above. We conducted our audit of compliance in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America; the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States; and the audit requirements of Title 2 U.S. Code of Federal Regulations Part 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards (Uniform Guidance). Those standards and the Uniform Guidance require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether noncompliance with the types of compliance requirements referred to above that could have a direct and material effect on a major federal program occurred. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence about The American Schools of Oriental Research's compliance with those requirements and performing such other procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion on compliance for each major federal program. However, our audit does not provide a legal determination of The American Schools of Oriental Research's compliance.

Opinion on Each Major Federal Program

In our opinion, The American Schools of Oriental Research complied, in all material respects, with the types of compliance requirements referred to above that could have a direct and material effect on each of its major federal programs for the year ended June 30, 2016.

Board of Trustees The American Schools of Oriental ResearchPage Two

Report on Internal Control Over Compliance

Management of The American Schools of Oriental Research is responsible for establishing and maintaining effective internal control over compliance with the types of compliance requirements referred to above. In planning and performing our audit of compliance, we considered The American Schools of Oriental Research's internal control over compliance with the types of requirements that could have a direct and material effect on each major federal program to determine the auditing procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances for the purpose of expressing an opinion on compliance for each major federal program and to test and report on internal control over compliance in accordance with the Uniform Guidance, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of internal control over compliance. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of The American Schools of Oriental Research's internal control over compliance.

A deficiency in internal control over compliance exists when the design or operation of a control over compliance does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct, noncompliance with a type of compliance requirement of a federal program on a timely basis. A material weakness in internal control over compliance is a deficiency, or combination of deficiencies, in internal control over compliance, such that there is a reasonable possibility that material noncompliance with a type of compliance requirement of a federal program will not be prevented, or detected and corrected, on a timely basis. A significant deficiency in internal control over compliance is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control over compliance with a type of compliance requirement of a federal program that is less severe than a material weakness in internal control over compliance, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

Our consideration of internal control over compliance was for the limited purpose described in the first paragraph of this section and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control over compliance that might be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies. We did not identify any deficiencies in internal control over compliance that we consider to be material weaknesses. However, material weaknesses may exist that have not been identified.

The purpose of this report on internal control over compliance is solely to describe the scope of our testing of internal control over compliance and the results of that testing based on the requirements of the Uniform Guidance. Accordingly, this report is not suitable for any other purpose.
