

The Levantine Ceramic Project 2016 Workshop 1: Petro-Fabrics of the southern Levant KU Leuven, Belgium – Wednesday & Thursday, March 9th-10th, 2016

The LCP will host a two-day workshop at KU Leuven on petro-fabrics of the southernmost Levant. Using 5000 new petrographic thin-section descriptions and photographs from sites all over Israel, discussions will focus on forming petro-fabric groups, devising a consistent approach to naming and describing these groups, and working to record this information on the LCP.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 9: GROUPING, DEFINING, NAMING

- 9:00 – 10:30 Galilee and the Jezreel Valley
- 10:30 – 10:45 coffee/tea break
- 10:45 – 12:15 Northern and Central coastal plains
- 12:15 – 13:15 Lunch Break (sandwiches provided)
- 13:15 – 14:45 Central Hills
- 14:45 – 15:00 coffee/tea break
- 15:15 – 16:45 Shephelah and Southern coastal plain

THURSDAY, MARCH 10: DESCRIBING AND RECORDING

- 9:00 – 10:30 Galilee and the Jezreel Valley
- 10:30 – 10:45 coffee/tea break
- 10:45 – 12:15 Northern and Central coastal plains
- 12:15 – 13:15 Lunch Break (sandwiches provided)
- 13:15 – 14:45 Central Hills
- 14:45 – 15:00 coffee/tea break
- 15:15 – 16:45 Shephelah and Southern coastal plain

The workshop will be held in the Romero room, Sint-Michielsstraat 2-4, 3000, Leuven.

The Levantine Ceramics Project

www.levantineceramics.org

Map of Central Leuven showing location of Hotel New Damshire and workshop location:

